Dear Mr. Weinberg.

I have never heard of Maura Budberg and I rather doubt if she is an important agent in London. Our own people are the best and I do not give them a carte for representation abroad. I hope you will inform Mrs. Budberg that we are representing the work through Farquharson. As you may surmise, we cannot possibly operate with another agent as long as we already have (and have had for years) representation at the highest level. Will you write the lady please?

Sincerely,

Mark Rudman
